

THE EVENING DISPATCH.

No 81 - Vol 4

PROVO CITY, UTAH, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1895.

PRICE FIVE CENTS A COPY

A. O. SMOOT

SUCCESSOR TO

Provo Lumber, Manufacturing & Building Co.

Wholesale and Retail Dealer in

LUMBER, DOORS, WINDOWS, BLINDS AND MOULDINGS.

RUSTIC SIDING, TONGUED & GROOVED FLOORING, LATH, SHINGLES, PAINTS & BUILDERS MATERIALS, HARDWARE, UTAH VALLEY IRON PAINT.

LUMBER SAWED AND DRESSED TO ORDER SCROLL SAWING AND TURNING DONE.

COMBINATION WIRE AND SLAT FENCE.

—We are the only House in town Carrying the—

UTAH VALLEY IRON PAINT.

A CAR LOAD OF FRUIT BOXES CHEAP.

A. O. SMOOT, Jr.

Manager.

Office and Yard opposite R. R. Depot.

P. O. Box No. 79.

Telephone No. 20

HOWE & TAFT, Wholesale Grocers.

The Merchants of Southern Utah. Especially those of Utah Co. will find it to their Advantage to Trade with

HOWE & TAFT,

WHOLESALE GROCERS.

Provo, Utah

THE PROVO CO-OP.

IS STRICTLY IN IT

WITH

GOODS :-

AND

:- PRICES

WHICH ARE

EMINENTLY

Satisfactory In Every Respect.

THE

LADIES OF PROVO

Will Find Everything Fashionable, Excellent and Cheap.

A. SINGLETON, Superintendent.

The Good Things of Life.

MAY ALL BE FOUND AT

OCCIDENTAL SALOON.

Maiben Block, J Street, Provo.

None but the Finest Goods Dealt in at

WILSON & NEIBAUER'S

QUEEN LIL QUILTS

And Appeals For Clemency For Her People.

LOOKED UPON AS A RUSE

To Secure Clemency When She Appears Before the Military Court—His Highness Pullman Seems to be Playing Horse With the Courts and May go to Jail.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—The steamer "Australia" has arrived with news of Liliuokalani's abdication in favor of the Hawaiian republic.

In her letter the ex-queen declares: "In order to avoid any possibility of doubt or misunderstanding on the subject, although I do not think any doubt or misunderstanding is either proper or possible, I do hereby fully and unequivocally admit and declare the government of the republic of Hawaii is the only lawful government of the Hawaiian islands and the late Hawaiian monarchy is finally and forever ended and has no longer any legal or actual validity, force or effect whatsoever; and I do hereby absolve all persons whosever, whether in the Hawaiian islands or elsewhere, from all and every manner of allegiances, or official obligation or duty to me and my heirs and successors forever, and I hereby declare to all such persons in the Hawaiian islands that I consider them as bound in duty and honor henceforth to support and sustain the government of Hawaii."

The queen made a plea for the Hawaiians and others who took part in the rebellion. She expresses a desire to live in absolute privacy henceforth. The queen's abdication was not unexpected. In many quarters it is looked upon as a ruse to secure clemency when she appears before the military court now sitting. Evidence of a very damaging character has been piled around her. She was arrested on a military warrant on the 16th of January and escorted to the executive building and confined under guard. Her house was searched, resulting in the discovery of four rifles, eleven pistols, seven swords, a large amount of cartridges, twenty-one dynamite bombs and damaging papers. Liliuokalani felt that of restoration. She even had a new cabinet made out.

The government has furnished the associated press correspondent with a copy of its answer to the ex queen, as follows: EXECUTIVE BUILDING, HONOLULU, Jan. 29, 1895. Madame—The document executed by you purporting to contain your abdication and renunciation of all sovereign rights heretofore claimed by you has been delivered on your behalf to the president. As you were under arrest at the time this instrument was signed, it is desired before accepting and placing the same on file to make clear to you, Mrs. Liliuokalani, in order that no misunderstanding may hereafter arise, the views of the government in the matter:

First—The exaction of this document cannot be taken to exempt you in the slightest degree from personal and individual liability for such complicity as due investigation and trial may show that you had in the late conspiracy against the government and the consequent loss of life, which position is recognized by you in your letter.

Second—It cannot be conceded that such rights and claims as you voluntarily relinquish have had any legal existence since January 14, 1895. When by your public announcement you no longer considered yourself bound by the fundamental law of the land in which you took office, and when, by your acts, you attempted by the mere exercise of your own will to establish a new system of government, the contract existing between you and the people was dissolved and all sovereign rights therefore vested in you were lost. The statement by members of your, then, cabinet that they could not control your proposed action and their appeal to the citizens of Honolulu for assistance was the next step which led to a resumption by the people of the right government.

Third—As far as your communication may be taken to this effect, that it is your desire that the republic be recognized by the people as the sole and lawful government of the country, it is fully appreciated. In this connection your unselfish appeal for clemency for those who took part in the late insurrection will receive full consideration.

By order of the executive council, (Signed) WILLIAM O. SMITH, Attorney-General.

PULLMAN MAY GO TO JAIL.

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—"If Mr. Pullman has evaded the serving of the subpoena, I shall certainly punish him for contempt of court," said Judge Grosscup, this evening.

Tomorrow morning a dozen of George M. Pullman's clerks will be brought before the judge and sworn as to their knowledge of Mr. Pullman's actions on Monday. A subpoena was issued for his presence, as a witness in Judge Grosscup's court on behalf of the defense in the conspiracy cases. The subpoena was given to United States Deputy Marshal Jones on Monday morning.

At the offices of the Pullman company he was informed by one of the attendants that Mr. Pullman was in his private office. Another clerk was requested to inform Mr. Pullman that Jones had a subpoena for his appearance at the Debs trial. The clerk returned to the outer office in a few minutes and said that Mr. Pullman was not in the office, but would be in later. All Monday the clerks kept the deputy running up and down the elevator; each time he returned he was informed that Mr. Pullman (either had gone out or had not returned).

Royal Baking Powder

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

ABSOLUTELY PURE

It is the aim of the officers of the society to establish branch offices in the several towns in the county the coming season, and it is hereby urged upon the farmers and fruit growers of each town to call upon or address the secretary at once that this purpose may be accomplished.

I hereby desire, to thank all friends for the generous support accorded the past season, and trust that the coming season may be a more successful and prosperous one.

F. J. COVART, Secy. and Mgr. Provo, Utah, Feb. 7, 1895.

Fair Play For Lady Somerset.

The Boston Transcript says editorially:

It stands to reason that newspapers to whom "Gaiety Girls" are the true and only interesting type of womanhood are finding the amiable Lady Henry Somerset, brilliant as she is, something of an ogre and bore. It is a saddening test of the taste and character controlling American journalists today in our cities. Miss Willard says that the current paragraphs about this brave and brilliant English woman's so-called "crusade" in this country are very nearly cruel to a woman who came to this country avowedly to study quietly our customs and politics, and with no intention to instruct a whole country or to attack anything. When the New York reporters flocked about Lady Henry Somerset on her arrival and quizzed her, she spoke of the most cruellest in London against flagrant indecencies in low class theaters, and expressed her hearty wish that all such evils might be abated on both sides of the sea. At once it was said, and it has been ceaselessly repeated, that Lady Henry came here to organize a crusade, to cultivate a fad, and so forth.

She is certainly deeply and practically interested in all that has any relation to highest cultivation and freedom of humanity, and she is daily found in good works, now at a convention, now at a meeting at Mrs. Bull's house, and she speaks on suffrage whenever she can be of service to the cause that she and Miss Willard have at heart. Titles are, however, a sort of natural romantic bait to our democracy, and a fiercer light than ever beat upon a native born reformer like Miss Willard inevitably falls upon the lady who is associated with her. The American press has long ago accepted and honored the exceptional and intellectual ability and rare devotion to public ends of Miss Willard, and it is with pleasure that in her name we ask of it fair play and gentler courtesy for that most interesting and admirable example of the "new woman," in the best sense of that abused term, Lady Henry Somerset.

Agreed With His Cross Examiner.

Mr. James Hyde, once a lawyer in a small town on Long Island, tells a good story about himself. He says:

"It was when I used to practice law in a little town near the center of the state. A farmer had one of his neighbors arrested for stealing ducks, and I was employed by the accused to endeavor to convince the court that such was not the case. The plaintiff was positive that his neighbor was guilty because he had seen the ducks in the defendant's yard."

"How do you know they are your ducks?" I asked.

"Oh, I should know my own ducks anywhere!" replied the farmer, and he gave a description of their various peculiarities whereby he could readily distinguish them from others.

"Why," said I, "those ducks can't be of such rare breed. I have seen some just like them in my own yard."

"That's not at all unlikely," replied the farmer, "for they are not the only ducks I have had stolen lately."—"Indianapolis Sentinel.

Now, in the first place, such slanderous charges are a gross injustice upon the president and officers of the society, who are men of high standing and unquestioned integrity in their respective communities in Utah county; enterprising and public spirited men, who have cheerfully obligated themselves financially, as well as giving their valuable time, in order to promote the welfare of the society and of the "hub of the wheel"—the farmer—thereby serving the best interests of the community.

Again, the organization of this society has proven a great boon to the producers, as scores can testify to. Last season nearly 50 per cent. of all the potatoes shipped from this station were handled by us, which entitled the farmer from five to nine cents per bushel above the price paid at any other point in Utah, besides creating a better and more profitable market in this locality than would otherwise have existed.

And again, all communications and inquiries are open for inspection by every member and shipper, that they may thereby assure themselves that they are paid every cent due. And the manager requests and is desirous that every shipper investigate for himself. It is clearly to be seen that the interests of the farmers settle in the continuation and promotion of this their agency, and that they give the same their moral as well as their small financial support, and not permit its progress to be deterred through the unreliable rumors set afloat by those who have but their own selfish ends in view.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder Awarded Gold Medal Midwinter Fair, San Francisco.

It is the aim of the officers of the society to establish branch offices in the several towns in the county the coming season, and it is hereby urged upon the farmers and fruit growers of each town to call upon or address the secretary at once that this purpose may be accomplished.

I hereby desire, to thank all friends for the generous support accorded the past season, and trust that the coming season may be a more successful and prosperous one.

F. J. COVART, Secy. and Mgr. Provo, Utah, Feb. 7, 1895.

Fair Play For Lady Somerset.

The Boston Transcript says editorially:

It stands to reason that newspapers to whom "Gaiety Girls" are the true and only interesting type of womanhood are finding the amiable Lady Henry Somerset, brilliant as she is, something of an ogre and bore. It is a saddening test of the taste and character controlling American journalists today in our cities. Miss Willard says that the current paragraphs about this brave and brilliant English woman's so-called "crusade" in this country are very nearly cruel to a woman who came to this country avowedly to study quietly our customs and politics, and with no intention to instruct a whole country or to attack anything. When the New York reporters flocked about Lady Henry Somerset on her arrival and quizzed her, she spoke of the most cruellest in London against flagrant indecencies in low class theaters, and expressed her hearty wish that all such evils might be abated on both sides of the sea. At once it was said, and it has been ceaselessly repeated, that Lady Henry came here to organize a crusade, to cultivate a fad, and so forth.

She is certainly deeply and practically interested in all that has any relation to highest cultivation and freedom of humanity, and she is daily found in good works, now at a convention, now at a meeting at Mrs. Bull's house, and she speaks on suffrage whenever she can be of service to the cause that she and Miss Willard have at heart. Titles are, however, a sort of natural romantic bait to our democracy, and a fiercer light than ever beat upon a native born reformer like Miss Willard inevitably falls upon the lady who is associated with her. The American press has long ago accepted and honored the exceptional and intellectual ability and rare devotion to public ends of Miss Willard, and it is with pleasure that in her name we ask of it fair play and gentler courtesy for that most interesting and admirable example of the "new woman," in the best sense of that abused term, Lady Henry Somerset.

Agreed With His Cross Examiner.

Mr. James Hyde, once a lawyer in a small town on Long Island, tells a good story about himself. He says:

"It was when I used to practice law in a little town near the center of the state. A farmer had one of his neighbors arrested for stealing ducks, and I was employed by the accused to endeavor to convince the court that such was not the case. The plaintiff was positive that his neighbor was guilty because he had seen the ducks in the defendant's yard."

"How do you know they are your ducks?" I asked.

"Oh, I should know my own ducks anywhere!" replied the farmer, and he gave a description of their various peculiarities whereby he could readily distinguish them from others.

"Why," said I, "those ducks can't be of such rare breed. I have seen some just like them in my own yard."

"That's not at all unlikely," replied the farmer, "for they are not the only ducks I have had stolen lately."—"Indianapolis Sentinel.

Now, in the first place, such slanderous charges are a gross injustice upon the president and officers of the society, who are men of high standing and unquestioned integrity in their respective communities in Utah county; enterprising and public spirited men, who have cheerfully obligated themselves financially, as well as giving their valuable time, in order to promote the welfare of the society and of the "hub of the wheel"—the farmer—thereby serving the best interests of the community.

Again, the organization of this society has proven a great boon to the producers, as scores can testify to. Last season nearly 50 per cent. of all the potatoes shipped from this station were handled by us, which entitled the farmer from five to nine cents per bushel above the price paid at any other point in Utah, besides creating a better and more profitable market in this locality than would otherwise have existed.

And again, all communications and inquiries are open for inspection by every member and shipper, that they may thereby assure themselves that they are paid every cent due. And the manager requests and is desirous that every shipper investigate for himself. It is clearly to be seen that the interests of the farmers settle in the continuation and promotion of this their agency, and that they give the same their moral as well as their small financial support, and not permit its progress to be deterred through the unreliable rumors set afloat by those who have but their own selfish ends in view.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder Awarded Gold Medal Midwinter Fair, San Francisco.

Towels, Towels

Bath Towels, Turkish Towels, Complexion Towels

—PROVO HAS TODAY THE—

BEST LINE OF TOWELS :-

.....AT THE.....

Lowest Prices,

Ever brought within its limits. These Towels can be found at

Egertsen's

Special drive for ten days. Call. See them and get a pair.

ANDREW EGERTSEN, Mgr.

234 West Center Street,

Provo

Furniture!

Carpets, Wall Paper,

Pianos and Organs.

Universal Stoves and Ranges,

Crockery and Lamps.

at TAYLORBROS. CO.

Provo City Lumber Co.

W. J. ROSS, Mgr.

—WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN—

NO. 1 RED CEDAR SHINGLES, LUMBER, LATH, MOULDINGS, SASH AND DOORS, PLASTER LIME, HAIR AND ALL KINDS OF BUILDING MATERIAL.

"SQUARE DEALINGS OUR MOTTO"

Hard Times Prices

All Orders delivered by team to Springville, Spanish Fork and Lake Shore when required.

Telephone No. 31.

P. O. Box 273.

Provo City

Provo Roller Mills

A. O. SMOOT, Proprietor,

Successor to Provo Milling Company.

OFFICE OPPOSITE U. P. DEPOT

Manufacturers of and Dealers in

CHOICE

BRANDS

OF FLOUR

AND

MILLING

FEED.

Good Treatment & Satisfaction Guaranteed

Grain Received on Storage. Free Corn Sheller.

D. R. BEEBE, Mgr.